

What's special about our school?

If you are looking for a kind-hearted, friendly, fun and educational school I can assure you Wildmoor Heath is the best place for you! With great staff, happy pupils and lots of opportunities, it's the place that everyone wants to be. Are you the parent that has to force your child to go to school every day? Does your child hate school? At Wildmoor there's no one that doesn't enjoy coming here every day.

Staff and pupils

What makes our school so brilliant is the staff. Many children think that their teachers don't really care about them, whereas here everyone feels wanted - cared for. The teachers put you first and will always try and make lessons fun as well as making sure every student gets educated properly. The pupils make a real difference, starting here may seem scary for everyone, but as you grow up with these people they become friends for life. The bond between students here is unbreakable; people really do care for others.

Rules

Every school needs rules and boundaries otherwise things would go wrong! At Wildmoor we have a set of values that every student tries their best to follow: respect, everyone, achieve your best, courage, helpful and caring, individuality, never give up and go for it! These values spell out reaching, which is a big thing at our school. If a student

What's special about our school?

If you are looking for a kind-hearted, friendly, fun and educational school I can assure you Wildmoor Heath is the best place for you! With great staff, happy pupils and lots of opportunities, it's the place that everyone wants to be. Are you the parent that has to force your child to go to school every day? Does your child hate school? At Wildmoor there's no one that doesn't enjoy coming here every day.

Staff and pupils

What makes our school so brilliant is the staff. Many children think that their teachers don't really care about them, whereas here everyone feels wanted - cared for. The teachers put you first and will always try and make lessons fun as well as making sure every student gets educated properly. The pupils make a real difference, starting here may seem scary for everyone, but as you grow up with these people they become friends for life. The bond between students here is unbreakable; people really do care for others.

Rules

Every school needs rules and boundaries otherwise things would go wrong! At Wildmoor we have a set of values that every student tries their best to follow: respect, everyone, achieve your best, courage, helpful and caring, individuality, never give up and go for it! These values spell out reaching, which is a big thing at our school. If a student

What's special about our school?

If you are looking for a kind-hearted, friendly, fun and educational school I can assure you Wildmoor Heath is the best place for you! With great staff, happy pupils and lots of opportunities, it's the place that everyone wants to be. Are you the parent that has to force your child to go to school every day? Does your child hate school? At Wildmoor there's no one that doesn't enjoy coming here every day.

Staff and pupils

What makes our school so brilliant is the staff. Many children think that their teachers don't really care about them, whereas here everyone feels wanted - cared for. The teachers put you first and will always try and make lessons fun as well as making sure every student gets educated properly. The pupils make a real difference, starting here may seem scary for everyone, but as you grow up with these people they become friends for life. The bond between students here is unbreakable; people really do care for others.

Rules

Every school needs rules and boundaries otherwise things would go wrong! At Wildmoor we have a set of values that every student tries their best to follow: respect, everyone, achieve your best, courage, helpful and caring, individuality, never give up and go for it! These values spell out reaching, which is a big thing at our school. If a student